

USC INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY MEAL PLAN

USC Village Dining Hall

Everybody's Kitchen

Parkside Restaurant & Grill

USC Hospitality offers an exclusive meal plan for International Academy students. The International 60 Meal Plan can be used in any of three all-you care to eat cafeterias inside the USC campus. Residents of Parkside Apartments are required to have the International 60 Meal Plan. Students who are part of a special group may also be required to purchase a meal plan.

THE INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY 60 MEAL PLAN ($660) INCLUDES:

- 60 meals
- Meals at three cafeterias inside the USC campus
- Meals conveniently accessed using USC ID card
- Meals are active from date of arrival/purchase until the cafeterias close for the summer
- Exclusive meal plan only available to USC International Academy students

DINING OPTIONS

USC VILLAGE DINING HALL

Nestled within USC Village, this new dining hall features a wide variety of dining options including USC's first ever Flexitarian Station (semi vegetarian where protein is an accent, not the focus) and plant-based station (vegan friendly). Other stations include a full salad, sandwich and soup bar, dessert station featuring made to order sweet and savory crepes and gelato.

EVERYBODY'S KITCHEN

EVK is the oldest and most popular cafeteria on campus. Near Leavey Library and McCarthy Quad, this cafeteria is just a three minute walk away from the USC International Academy. EVK American home-style meals that will leave you satisfied. On theme nights, they transform their dining room and offer entertainment! Don't forget to dress in theme and participate in the costume contest!

PARKSIDE RESTAURANT & GRILL

Parkside Restaurant & Grill is conveniently located on the first floor of Parkside International Residential College, a few steps away from Parkside Apartments. The chefs prepare their favorite classic recipes daily, with a special focus on international gourmet food. Parkside Restaurant can accommodate special food needs, such as gluten-free and vegan.